DIVIDEND

140. The Company in a general meeting may, subject to Section 123 of the Act, declare a dividend to be paid to the members, according to their respective rights and interests in profits, and subject to provisions of the Act, may fix the time for payment.
141. Subject to provisions of the Act, the Board may from time to time pay to members such interim dividend of such amount on such class of shares and at such times as it may think fit.
142. Subject to provisions of the Act and/or Rules, any capital paid up on a share during period in respect of which dividend is declared shall, unless terms of issue otherwise determine, only entitle holder of such share to an apportioned amount of such dividend as from date of payment of capital on share.
143. (1) No larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Board, but the Company in a general meeting may declare a smaller dividend.
- (2) No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits of the year or any other undistributed profits or otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of the Act, and no dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The declaration of the Directors as to amount of net profits of the Company shall be conclusive.
144. The Board may retain dividends payable upon such shares in respect of which any person is under the Articles entitled to become a member, or which any person under that Article is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same.
145. A transfer of shares shall not pass right to any dividend declared thereon before registration of transfer.
146. Subject to provisions of the Act, no member shall be entitled to receive payment of any interest or dividend in respect of his share of shares while any money may be due or owing from him to the Company in respect of such share or shares or otherwise, howsoever either alone or jointly with any other person and the Directors may deduct from dividend or other sum(s) payable to any member all sums of money so due from him to the Company.
147. (1) Unless otherwise directed or provided under any law for time being in force, any dividend or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by electronic mode or by cheque or warrant sent through post to registered address of members or persons entitled.
- (2) Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to order of member or person to whom it is sent.
- (3) Payment in any way whatsoever shall be made at risk of person entitled to money paid or to be paid. The Company will not be responsible for a payment which is lost or delayed. The Company will be deemed to have made a payment and receive a good discharge for it if a payment using any of the foregoing permissible means is made.
148. No unclaimed or unpaid dividend shall be forfeited by the Board unless claim thereto becomes barred by law and the Company shall comply with all the provisions of Sections 123 and 124 of the Act in respect of unclaimed or unpaid dividend.
149. Any general meeting declaring a dividend may, on recommendation of the Board, make a call on members of such amount as meeting fixes, but so that call on each member shall not exceed dividend payable to him and so that call may be made payable at same time as dividend, and dividend may, if so arranged between the Company and members, be set off against calls.

150. The waiver in whole or in part of any dividend on any share by any document (whether or not under seal) shall be effective only if such document is signed by member (or person entitled to share in consequence of death or bankruptcy of holder) and delivered to the Company and if or to extent that same is accepted as such or acted by the Board. Waiver of dividend

CAPITALIZATION OF PROFITS

151. Subject to provisions of the Act, the Company in the general meeting may, upon recommendation of the Board, resolve that is desirable to capitalize any part of amount for time being standing to credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to credit of profit and loss account or securities premium account or capital redemption reserve account otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sums be set free for distribution among members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of a dividend and in same proportion on condition that same be not paid in cash but be applied, subject to provisions of the Act, to the extent applicable, either in or towards paying up any amounts to time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively, or paying up any amount for time being un-paid on shares held by such members, respectively, or paying up in full unissued share of the Company, to be allotted and among such members in proportion aforesaid, or partly in one way and partly in other, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution; provided that a securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve fund may, for purpose of this Article, only be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares; and provided further that capitalization of profits and/or reserves of other funds of the Company under this Article shall be for purpose of issuing fully paid bonus shares or paying up any amount for time being unpaid on any shares held by members of the Company as permitted or provided for, by the Act. Issue of bonus shares
152. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Directors shall make all appropriation and application of undistributed profits and other funds or accounts resolved to be capitalized thereby, and make all allotments and issues of fully paid bonus shares, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full powers to the Directors to make such provision by issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit in case of shares becoming distributable in fractions, and so also to authorize any person to enter on behalf of all members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for allotment of them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled to such capitalization or (as the case may require) for payment by the Company on their behalf, by application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalized, of amounts or any part of amounts remaining unpaid in their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such members. Directors to take appropriate steps for allotment of bonus shares
153. Subject to provisions of the Act and these Articles, in cases where some of shares of the Company are fully paid and others are partly paid, the capitalization referred to in the Articles may be effected by distribution of further shares in respect of fully paid shares and by crediting partly paid shares with whole or part of unpaid liability thereon, but so that as between holders of fully paid shares and partly paid shares sum so applied in payment of such further shares and in extinguishment or diminution of liability on partly paid shares shall be in proportion to amount then already paid on existing fully paid and partly paid shares respectively. Capitalization in respect to partly paid shares
